

Application Directions for Study Abroad

We are delighted that you are applying to study abroad on an Arcadia program. This is the first step of your journey, and while there is a lot to do, it should not be overwhelming. Please use the following checklist to help you through the process, if you have any questions, call us at (215) 572-2901.

Mail your complete application to the address at the top of this page or fax it to (215) 572-2174. We will begin to process your application as soon as we have received a completed form (must include all the items in the checklist) and the application fee. We will be in touch when we have received your completed application. Please note that the application and additional forms can be found on Arcadia University's website at www.arcadia.edu/abroad/forms.

General Application Requirements: (Check off each as completed.)

- Application Form: Please type or print clearly using black or blue ink.
- Inventory of Goals and Expectations (see page 6).
- Non-Refundable $50 Application Fee: You may send a check or money order payable to Arcadia University, or pay online at www.arcadia.edu/abroad/pay. For online applications, this fee is waived. You may apply online at <http://www.arcadia.edu/abroad/apply>.
- 8 full-face, passport size: 1.5"x2" photos. Please print your name and home school on the back of each photo. We cannot be responsible for photos without names on them. The photos are used for identification only and not for admissions purposes. Some programs require additional photos. Please see <http://www.arcadia.edu/abroad/photos> for more information.
- College Transcript: This must be official and show credits and grades for all courses taken to date. Transfer students must submit official transcripts from each institution attended. All summer school work should be similarly documented.
- Study Abroad Advisor's Form (A Form): Indicate your program choices and the study period, and sign this form before you submit it to your dean, study abroad advisor or other home campus official responsible for approving study abroad.
- Recommendation Form (R Form): Indicate your program choices and study period, and sign this form before you submit it for completion by a faculty referee who is familiar with your performance in the classroom.
- Preliminary Course Form: Course forms for each program are available at www.arcadia.edu/abroad/forms.

Requirements for Specific Programs:

- All Internship programs (Australia, England, Ireland, Scotland), require the following documents in addition to the general application...
 - A current résumé (including computer/software skills), a one-page, written statement detailing your reasons for pursuing a specific internship and the skills and experiences that you have obtained which make you a good candidate, and an additional personal reference (forms can be downloaded at <http://www.arcadia.edu/abroad/forms>.)
 - Note: If you are pursuing an internship in the fields of fine art, architecture, graphic design, journalism, or interior design, you must submit a nonreturnable portfolio of your work.
- Math, science and engineering placements: If you are applying to study math, science or engineering at a British or Irish university, you must submit copies of your home institution course descriptions for all relevant background work in math, science and/or engineering.
- Studio art programs: If you are applying for studio art courses, you will need to submit a non-returnable portfolio of 12-15 color slides or a CD of recent work.
Spain and Italy students in lower division studio art classes do not need to submit a portfolio.
- University of Cambridge: Spring/year: Submit two samples of graded academic writing in your major subject. Summer: One sample.
- Oxford University: Please submit clean, unmarked copies of two graded academic writing samples in your major subject with your application.
- University of York: Applicants to the English Department must submit a sample of recent written work (at least 1500 words) on a literary topic.

Applicants to the institutions listed below are required to submit a second academic reference.

Please photocopy the "R Form" or you may have your reference send us a letter on the letterhead of his/her institution.

- University of Aberdeen (all study periods): Both references should be within your intended area of study.
- King's College (all study periods): Both references should be within your intended area of study.
- Literature in Scotland Summer Programs: At least one reference should be from an English faculty member.
- London School of Economics: Both references should be within your intended area of study.
- Oxford University: Both references should be within your intended area of study.
- University of Cambridge: Both references should be within your intended area of study.
- Royal Holloway (all study periods): Both references should be within your intended area of study.
- School of Oriental & African Studies (academic year): Both references should be within your intended area of study.
- University College London (all study periods): Both references should be within your intended area of study.
- University of St. Andrews (all study periods)

Program Choice List

Select up to three programs from the list below. It is especially important that you list your program preferences on the Recommendation Form, Study Abroad Advisor's Form, and on the first page of the application. Write the program names in your order of preference and their study period codes where required throughout the application. In most cases, your completed application will be submitted to only one program at a time. If your application is not accepted by your first choice program, we will ask for your permission to submit it to your second and/or third choices.
