Arcadia University

Contemporary Irish Studies
Summer Program
Contemporary Irish Studies Program

The Arcadia University Contemporary Irish Studies program is a six week, six credit program that will introduce you to a wide variety of subjects on Ireland while experiencing life in its capital city.

Our Contemporary Irish Studies program requires you to take two, concurrent courses: Irish Literature and Irish History and Politics. Each course meets for two hours per class, four days per week.

Irish Literature explores the works of major Irish writers, dramatists and poets, including illustrious figures such as James Joyce and W.B. Yeats.

Irish History and Politics covers the defining events of 20th-century Ireland: Irish independence and what has occurred since, modernization of Irish society, and "The Troubles." You will also explore issues concerning Ireland's constitution; its political parties, electoral system and parliament; and the country's role in the European Union.

The courses are offered through the Institute of Public Administration, a recognized college of the National University of Ireland that focuses exclusively on civil and public sector development. Classes will be held at the Institute's beautiful headquarters in the Ballsbridge section of Dublin, an upscale, residential neighborhood that also houses a large concentration of foreign embassies.

Accommodation
You will share a fully furnished flat in a residential area south of the Dublin city center with other Arcadia University program students. Generally there are three to five students per flat; you should expect to share a bedroom. You will be responsible for your own meals; your flat will be stocked with cooking utensils, cutlery, and dishes. From your flat to classes, you can expect about a 30 to 45 minute walk or 15 to 20 minute commute by bus.
Irish History and Politics

Irish Politics

This part of the course covers key issues in Irish politics including:

- The Constitution
- The Oireachtas
- Political Parties
- The Electoral System
- Politics and the Economy
- The European Union and Irish Politics

Irish History

This part of the course covers important aspects of the history of modern Ireland including:

- Essential background: Ireland 1800 – 1870
- The Famine
- Parnell and Home Rule
- The War of Independence
- Northern Ireland

Study Visits

Study visits are incorporated into the course. These include visits to historical sites in Dublin and Co. Wicklow.
Readings

Irish Politics

The Constitution of Ireland

Irish History

Irish Literature

The Modern Irish Literature course examines the work of major writers in poetry, drama and the novel. Contemporary Irish writers and modern literary themes will also be explored. Modern Irish Literature features the following authors’ works and topics:

- William Butler Yeats: Selected Poems
- John M. Synge: The Shadow of the Glen
- James Joyce: The Dead
- Patrick Kavanagh: The Great Hunger
- Brian Friel: Translations
- Popular Culture: Literature and Music
- Poetry in Ireland and America
- Aspects of Contemporary Literature

Study Visits

The course incorporates visits to the Abbey Theatre, the Joyce Museum, the Irish Writers Centre, and the ‘Synge’ country in Wicklow.

Readings

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Author</th>
<th>Title</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>W.B. Yeats</td>
<td>Yeats: The Poems, A New Selection (Anna Livia Press)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>J.M. Synge</td>
<td>Complete Plays (Metheun)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>James Joyce</td>
<td>Dubliners of the Essential James Joyce (Triad/Grafton Books)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Samuel Beckett</td>
<td>Collected Shorter Plays (Faber &amp; Faber)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Patrick Kavanagh</td>
<td>Complete Poems (Goldsmith Press)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brian Friel</td>
<td>Translations or Selected Plays (Faber &amp; Faber)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>John McGahern</td>
<td>High Ground (Faber &amp; Faber)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Institute for Public Administration Staff

Michael Mulreany

Dr. Mulreany holds an MA and PhD in Economics. He has been a full-time staff member of the IPA since 1984.

Dr. Mulreany lectures in economics on the Institute’s degree course and organizes the Institute’s master’s degree programs. He is director of the Institute’s Parliamentary Internship and European Studies programs.

Publications

Dr. Mulreany has published numerous books and articles. Among his books are:

- The Single European Market and the Irish Economy
- Efficiency and Effectiveness in the Public Domain
- Public Expenditure and the Private Sector
- Taxation: Ireland the New Europe
- Ireland: The Economy

Margaret Mary Malone

Ms. Malone holds an MA and PhD in European Integration from the University of Limerick. She is the Institute’s European Studies program coordinator and lecturer at the IPA, Dublin and the Irish Institute for European Affairs in Leuven, Belgium. She has been a teaching assistant and convenor of undergraduate courses in European Studies at the University of Limerick. She has also worked as information officer with a commercial European business information center.

John Heffernan

Mr. Heffernan holds an MA from University College Dublin. He lectures in Politics at UCD and is an associate staff member of the IPA. He is a former director of the Irish Section of Amnesty International.
Frank Litton

Mr. Litton holds a BA in Politics from University College Dublin and an MA in Organization Theory from Trinity College Dublin. He has been a full-time staff member of the IPA since 1973. He is a former editor of the journal Administration and a former National Technical Officer for Ireland with the International Association for the Evaluation of Educational Achievement.

Publications

Among Mr. Litton’s publications are:

Denis O’Brien

Denis O’Brien is registrar of the Institute of Public Administration. He also lectures on Irish literature as part of the Institute’s programs on Irish Society and Politics for US students. He is a graduate of Trinity College, Dublin where he received a doctorate for his study of Walt Whitman and his readers in Ireland in the nineteenth century.

Dr. O’Brien has previously worked for Trinity College Dublin, Boston University, the Gaiety School of Acting, Dublin, and has lectured to visiting groups from universities in New York, Boston, Minnesota, Philadelphia, St. Louis and Sweden. He has published poems in The Irish Times, Poetry Ireland Review, British Haiku Journal and College Green among others. Poetry and fiction is anthologized in Ogham Stone: An Anthology of Contemporary Ireland.
Arcadia Dublin Staff

Colin Ireland, PhD

Resident Director
Colin has served as resident director in Ireland since 1992 and liaises with all Irish programs to ensure they run smoothly. An American by birth and resident of Ireland for 20 years, Colin holds both American and Irish citizenship. He is an accomplished scholar who is widely published in a variety of medievalist and philological journals.

Hayden Tomlin

Administrative Officer
Hayden, a native of Dublin, has a bachelor’s degree in business and law. After his undergraduate studies, Hayden spent considerable time living and working abroad. Hayden’s responsibilities include the management of student financial services and student housing for all of our program students in Ireland.

Gráinne Hand

Student Services Officer
Gráinne has a bachelor’s degree in Business Studies and Marketing. Gráinne’s responsibilities are in coordinating and planning student events such as orientation and social outings. Gráinne communicates on a regular basis with students to ensure that they settle into and understand Irish life.