Course Registration Instructions and Form

How to Select Your Courses from the Online Listings:
The Arcadia Center for Hellenic, Balkan and Mediterranean Studies and Research has compiled a complete listing of courses available to study abroad students, on our website: http://www.arcadiacenter.edu.gr/ar_Academics.php. On this page, look at the “Academics” heading in the red box on the left. Under this heading, you will see a listing of the courses organized by Ancient, Byzantine and Modern Studies. Each title is a link that will bring up a course description. You should pay particular attention to the semester in which the course is offered. Please note that the “Greek Key” course is required. Please click on that link to find a description of the course and the possible language levels.

Requirements:
To compile a full load, you must take four courses per semester or eight courses for the academic year. Each course in English is worth four American semester hours of credit. Students will take three four-credit courses and the mandatory six-credit “Greek Key: Language in a Cultural Landscape” each semester. The “Greek Key: Language in a Cultural Landscape” course has two components. The first component is the Modern Greek language course that you will take at a level that matches your proficiency. For placement in the appropriate level, you’ll have an interview during orientation in Athens. No prior knowledge of Modern Greek is necessary. The second component will involve you in a structured service learning activity in a social service or environmentally focused organization combined with a cultural seminar. Fieldbook exercises will help document your insights into the society and people of contemporary Greece. Together, these two components of the “The Greek Key” will help you unlock the door to cross-cultural understanding. Your elective classes will enhance this learning.

Making sure your credits will transfer back:
It is your responsibility to make sure that you are registered for a full academic load according to your home school and that the courses you take abroad will transfer for credit to your home school. While every effort will be made to accommodate your course selections, Arcadia University does not guarantee placement in any course. You will formally register for courses upon arrival in Athens.

We suggest that you secure approval for at least 6 courses per semester. Make sure to list alternate courses. List your choices and alternates in order of interest. Your first choices may not be available due to schedule changes, time conflicts or cancellations. Flexibility is very important.

Please complete the course registration form, review it with your academic or study abroad advisor and submit it to Arcadia. Make sure to keep a copy of the form for your records.

If you have any other questions or concerns, please contact Timothy Barton at barton@arcadia.edu.

If you intend to study an ancient language (Greek or Latin), please answer the questions below.

1. How many semesters of ancient Greek/Latin will you have completed by the time you study in Athens?

2. What textbook(s) have you completed? If you have not completed a text, approximately what chapter will be your last before studying in Athens?

3. Have you read any original texts? If so, who or what? (For instance, The Iliad, lyric poetry, Seneca, etc.)
