City University
Housing Information Sheet

City University offers students the option of living in residence halls but cannot guarantee accommodation for every request from Arcadia study abroad students. Early application and deposit is highly advised as accommodation in residence halls is allocated on a first come, first served basis. University regulations require that you contract to remain in your assigned housing for the full duration of your program.

NOTE: All City University applicants will be expected to take City University housing when available. Should such accommodation be unavailable, we will accommodate you in Arcadia University housing. For information on Arcadia’s accommodation, please see the Arcadia London Semester program housing information page. Please note that students are assigned to City University housing according to the date of receipt of the housing preference form on a first-come, first-served basis. Students assigned to Arcadia University housing in London will be assessed a surcharge of $600.

Residence Halls
City University residence facilities are located within a five-minute walk from the main university buildings. Each hall provides single study bedrooms. Each room offers a data link to the campus computer network. Please note that residents of City University residence halls will need to purchase a network card to gain access to City University’s computer network for a fee of approximately $140.

Finsbury Hall, built in 1972, houses 200 men and women and is used primarily to house full-year students. The rooms are divided into groups of 12 single-rooms with each group of rooms sharing a bathroom and kitchen. The kitchen is equipped with a sink, stove, refrigerator and individual storage cupboards. On the ground floor there is a dining room, a bar and TV rooms that look out on a small courtyard. Each floor has washing machines, dryers and ironing facilities. The halls also provide music practice rooms. There are telephones in each room. For additional information on this residence, please visit http://www.city.ac.uk/accommodation/halls/finsbury.html.

Walter Sickert Hall, built in 1994, houses 224 men and women and is used primarily for term and semester students. Students live in single-rooms and each room is equipped with a private bathroom. Kitchen and common rooms are shared among ten rooms. Each common room has a TV and study area. Kitchens are equipped with a sink, stove, refrigerator and individual storage cupboards. The hall also has laundry facilities. There are telephones in each room. For additional information on this residence, please visit http://www.city.ac.uk/accommodation/halls/sickert.html.

Linens
A bedding pack is provided for residents of both Finsbury and Walter Sickert Halls. A pack consists of a pillow, a duvet (comforter), and a set of sheets. You must provide your own towels.

Alternative Arcadia University student housing provides a standard sized duvet and pillow. You must provide your own sheets and towels.

Residence Hall Charges
If you are assigned to a City university residence hall, your program fee covers the cost of housing while classes are in session. We will pay these fees on your behalf.

Meal Plans
All City University and Arcadia University housing options are self-catered. There are no meal plans available on the City University program. This is standard for accommodation at British universities. Students will have access to kitchen facilities and campus dining locations, as well as local restaurants and grocery stores for meals. Cooking utensils, crockery and tableware are not provided in City University residences. However, you can purchase these items once you arrive in London for about £40.
Housing Between Terms

For academic year students who would like to remain in residence during part or all of a term break, the cost will be covered by Arcadia University. Only full year students are eligible for housing over the Christmas holiday. Full year students who wish to remain in City housing over the holiday will be responsible for making arrangements with the City accommodation officer and for paying the appropriate fees. You may then submit your receipt to Arcadia’s London office for reimbursement. You may be asked to change rooms. If you do not wish to remain in residence over the term break, you may be asked to store your belongings. Storage areas will be available.
