Queen Mary, University of London
University Housing Information

Queen Mary offers students the option of living in Queen Mary halls of residence. College regulations require that you contract to remain in your assigned housing for the full duration of your program. If Queen Mary is unable to accommodate you, you will be placed in Arcadia University housing in London.

Complete the Housing Preference Form and return it to our offices as soon as possible.

University Housing/Self Catering Residences (no meal plan)
Residences on the Mile End campus are allocated primarily to undergraduate students in their final year of study and to study abroad students. Almost all rooms are single rooms and form part of a flat or house for three to six students. Students share kitchen/dining facilities. Some residences require students to share bathroom facilities and some offer ensuite facilities. Payphone facilities are provided in communal areas. Internet access is available in all rooms.

Further information about the residences can be found on the following link:

Linens
Queen Mary Housing: Linens are provided. Queen Mary housing provides a duvet, pillow, sheet, pillowcase, and duvet cover. Towels are not provided.

Arcadia University Housing: students must provide sheets, towels and a duvet cover; a pillow and duvet are provided.

Housing Between Terms
If you would like to remain in the halls of residence during part or all of a long break, the cost will be covered by the Arcadia University. Only full year students are eligible for housing over the Christmas holiday. You will be responsible for making your own arrangements with the accommodations officer and for paying the appropriate fees. You may then submit your receipt to Arcadia's London Office for reimbursement. You may be asked to change rooms. If you do not wish to remain in residence over the term break, you may be asked to store your belongings. Storage areas will be made available to you in Queen Mary housing.
