SUISS Application Instructions: British Literature AND Creative Writing

● It is necessary to complete this application and return it by March 31st as this form must be sent to the Scottish Universities International Summer School with your completed Arcadia application. Spaces on both programs are competitive.

● Send the completed form back to Traci Chupik, Program Coordinator, Arcadia University, CEA, 450 S. Easton Road, Glenside, PA 19038. To save time you can fax the form to my attention at 215-572-2174 or scan and e-mail it to chupikt@arcadia.edu.

● Please print clearly in BLOCK CAPITALS using black ink.

● Write dates by day-month-year (e.g. 20/04/81) for date of birth, program dates and with signature at bottom of form.

● Be sure to review the posted reading list and guide to transfer of credits.

● Creative Writing applicants: please include a sample of a prose or drama piece of (maximum) 3,000 words, or poetry of (maximum) 50 lines. Also, be sure to answer the following question on page 4 of the application:

“Please be aware that competition for places is intense. If your application for the Creative Writing program is unsuccessful, would you like to be considered for the Text and Context [British and Irish Literature 2] course? YES / NO (delete as appropriate)”

Please note that the Creative Writing program has two application closing dates. Applicants who submit all of their application materials by March 10th will be considered as early applicants and will be allotted spaces ahead of the general deadline (March 31st). For 2007, there are only 32 Creative Writing spaces available.
